GOT NORTH CAROLINA'S SENATOR-SHIP BY 12 MAJORITY.

The Populists Divided-Skinner Excommunicated-An Exciting Incident-Lost His Temper-Microbe Scalps-A Marriage.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 20 .- (Special.)-The vote for senator on joint ballot to-day resulted as follows:

Pritchard (Republican), 88; Thompson (Populist), 43; Doughton (Democrat), 23. Pritchard's majority of the votes cast, 12 Majority of the entire membership of the Legislature, 3.

There appears to be little or no doubt that the Populists are divided. The bolters, it is thought, will practically unite with the Republicans. Senator Butler virtually says co-operation of the Populist majority and the Republicans is at an end. Every leader in the party, except Harry Skinner, stands with Butler in this matter. Skinner is now excommunicate. It was said by a Populist that, compared to the "bull" Butler will issue against him, a "bull of excommunication" will be as but a valentine. ANOTHER ENGINEER PROSTRATED Effect of the Government's Disastrous Naval Policy. WASHINGTON, January 20.-The disastrous policy of maintaining a naval organization with an insufficient corps of organization with an insufficient corps of naval engineers has again been illustrated by the prestration of Fleet Engineer Burnap, of the Olympia, the flagship of the Asiatic squadron. A veteran of the civil war, and a man closely approaching the compulsory naval age of retirement, he has collapsed under the strain of looking out for the 17,000-horsepower machinery of the Olympia, while at the same time exercising the general duties of fleet-engineer of the squadron.

As a result of under manning the engineroms, it is claimed that the heavily powered ships cannot hereafter be depended upon for continuous duty, and the pended upon for continuous duty, and the cost of maintenance and repairs to the machinery is progressively increasing.

The bears tried to make capital from this, and hammered this list vigorously at intervals, but with little success, however, outside of the Coal stocks. The general list was irregular, and, in the main, lower. The decline was equal to 1-4@11-4 per cent., Manhattan The dealings, however, were leading. small, and confined largely to roomtraders. The leading commission houses reported a material decrease in outside orders. Among the specialties, Illinois Steel broke 4, to 38, on the circulation of unfavorable rumors in regard to the finances of the company. Late in the day it was announced that the company had effected a loan of $1,000,000 for one year with the United States Trust Company, of this city, which, it is asserted. will enable it to pay off its floating debt obligations. The fact that the company had to shut down its steel-rail department however, was used against the stock. The selling of the active issues, such as Sugar, Chicago Gas, the Grangers, and Louisville and Nashville, was chiefly for short account, and a fair borrowing demand prevailed. NEW YORK DRY-GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, January 20.—Interest in the dry-goods market has to-day been largely centered in bleached cottons, owing to the general reduction in the prices of leading makes of 4-4 goods. The declines are as a 'trie i-2c, per yard. In other directions the market has shown no material change in conditions. Business is still somewhat better than a week ago. For spring cotton fabrics, orders have been about an average extent. The advance yesterday of 11-lic. In regular printed cloths has attracted considerable attention, but there is no disposition here to regard the gain as permanent. The woodlen goods situation is without change in any respect.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, January 20.—The action of the St. Louis wheat market was the main factor in determining the course of prices for that grain to-day. In the morning early a report that St. Louis had sold 200,000 bushels for export late yesterday caused firmness to be exhibited, but doubt as to the accuracy of the claim was expressed, and the advance falled to hold. Then at the close it was said that 120,000 bushels were worked at St. Louis for shipment abroad, and a sharp bulge took place. All day the market at the southwestern city was relatively stronger than we were, a fact which deterred sellers from acting with too much enthusiasm May wheat opened at from 791-2679-3-4c., sold between 781-4 and 801-4650-3-5c., and closed at 501-86501-ic.—5-863-4c. higher CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET. A STOCK TO BE PREFERRED.

The Old Dominion Building and Loan Association has recently issued a new series of stock, which they are offering to investors at $25 a share. The stock is to share ratably in the earnings of the company, and the directors are authorized to declare out of its portion of these earnings such dividends as may seem to them wise. The remainder of its earnings is set aside as a surplus fund, and is administered for the benefit of this particular stock, and when the surplus fund has grown sufficiently the profits on it will also be distributed in dividends to the holders of this stock. tributed in dividends to the holders of this stock.

than yesterday. Cash wheat was irregular, closing 1-2c, higher.

Corn—The tone of the corn market varied little, if at all, from that of wheat. In the morning early it was firm, and prices were up, but later the strength vanished, and recessions were then in order. A raily occurred at the close, sympathy with wheat being the controlling factor. May corn opened at 24-1-tc., soid between 243-8 and 240-241-8c., and closed at 24-3-8c.—1-8@1-4c. higher than yesterday. Cash corn was steady to 1-4c. lower.

Outs—The oats market was distinctly a sympathetic one, the advances and declines of wheat and corn being faithfully reproduced. May oats closed unchanged from yesterday. Cash oats were steady. Provisions—Improvement in product followed the receipt of the intelligence that the hog run was much lighter than expected. Only a trifling trade was noted, and the range of prices was consequently narrow. At the close May pork was 100 121-2c. higher, and May ribs 5@71-2c. higher, and May ribs 5@71-2c. higher.
